Dear Prof. Li,

As our collaboration continues, I would like to invite you to visit Intel from August 6 to August 8, 2019, to discuss the research progress. A proposed agenda for the visit is outlined as follows:

August 6: Update on the progress in attribute switching research

August 7: Discuss new ideas in video super-resolution techniques

August 8: Summarize the discussions and decide the action items

I understand that University of Science and Technology of China will cover all of your expenses while you are in the United States and your traveling expenses. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
